

A woman in a yellow t-shirt is sitting on a man's shoulders. Both have their arms outstretched, and they are looking towards a bright sunset sky. The man is wearing a striped t-shirt. The background is a warm, golden light from the setting sun. There are decorative elements: a large yellow circular graphic with white dots on the left, a red zigzag line at the top, a red triangle on the right, and a green triangle at the bottom. The text is centered over the image.
